LOCATION

Residenza di Ripetta is found at the fulcrum of Rome's historic quarter. It's an area known for its eclectic mix culture and local delicacies. Just moments from the hotel's door, the grandiose neoclassical architecture of Piazza del Popolo greets art lovers and takes them to the Basilica di Santa Maria del Popolo, an Augustinian church housing works by Caravaggio, Pinturicchio and Bernini. On the other side of the hotel lies Rome's fashion quarter, a vibrant network of streets lined with luxury boutiques from the world's most influential and admired fashion houses.

HISTORY

A 17th century baroque treasure, Niquesa's Residenza di Ripetta is a former convent. To enter its expansive, verdant inner courtyard is to enter an oasis in the very centre of Rome. Paintings, statues, and original frescoes adorn its many enticing spaces but a remarkable collection of contemporary art also reside here.

Located between Piazza del Popolo and the Spanish Steps, throughout the centuries, the Residenza di Ripetta provided shelter for religious, unmarried girls 'endowed with good talent and lively and generous compassion' to 'keep them away from the dangers of the world and preserve their virtues, until the opportunity of either a marriage or becoming nuns'.

The original convent developed and grew over centuries thanks to the generous papal support. One of the most honourable donors was Pope Innocenzo XI, whose marble bust is now located in the main ballroom - a former chapel of the convent.

ART AND ARCHITECTURE

Located in one of the most famous baroque monasteries in Rome, guests are still able to admire the ex-church oratory of the convent which preserves a magnificent fresco of the XVIII century.

Residenza di Ripetta is also home to the modern artwork of celebrated visionary Arnaldo Pomodoro. The artist has pieces of work housed in collections around the world, including a huge golden globe at the Vatican known as 'Sphere within Sphere.' Guests will find one of Mr Pomodoro's signature modern works as a focal point in the entranceway, incorporated within the hotel's effortless mix of ancient architecture, traditional Italian paintings and sculptures.

A feature of the property is its lush inner courtyard garden, the Giardino di Ripetta, which overflows with scented Mediterranean plants and herbs. Loved by locals and guests alike, the garden is the perfect spot for a pre or post dinner cocktail.

SUITES AND ROOMS

Spacious and eclectic, the hotel's rooms & suites are as individual as those who stay in them and entwine the understated elegance of the convent's legacy with the contemporary cool of today's design aesthetic.

The guest bedrooms are high ceilinged and the décor complements the original 17th century architecture of the building while offering marble bathrooms, air conditioning, LCD TVs with on-demand entertainment, high speed Wi-Fi and a well-stocked minibar; many have views over the green inner courtyard allowing guests a tranquil escape from the vital centre of the Eternal City.

The Royal Suite has been furnished with all the care and attention of a refined private home and over the years has hosted illustrious guests from all over the world. Experience the ambience of a historical Roman residence, from classic furnishings to modern amenities, this Suite whispers comfort and relaxation. Our Royal Suite measures 95m² with windows opening onto the inner courtyard garden.

CAFÉ DI RIPETTA & AMERICAN BAR

Residenza di Ripetta is home to Café di Ripetta American Bar & Restaurant and is run by head chef Rodolfo Chieroni. The refined dining room is capacious yet intimate and alive with modern and antique art. Its natural hues, fine antique furniture, deep armchairs and luxurious soft furnishings offer a welcoming environment for guests to relax with an evening meal.

Expertly mixed cocktails and a diverse list of local and international wines, spirits and beers are available at the Hotel's elegant bar. Leather stools and banquette seating retain the sense of heritage that is felt throughout the hotel, but modern touches give this space a fresh and reviving atmosphere.

GIARDINO DI RIPETTA

For dining under the sky by day or night, food and carefully selected wines and cocktails are served in the lush Mediterranean Giardino di Ripetta.

WEDDINGS, MEETINGS AND EVENTS

Residenza di Ripetta boasts six halls with a total capacity of 560 guests. From the small library room which is an ideal location for a small private dinner to the largest and most breath-taking function space, the marble-floored Bernini ballroom a former oratory, where 180 guests can be catered for at a banquet. The hotel even has a stunning roof garden adorned with blossoming flowers and climbing ivy perfect for enjoying the balmy evening in Rome.

The former oratory of the monastery is the perfect location for a unique wedding in the heart of the city. Newlyweds or honeymooners can also enjoy one of the hotel's wedding suites; Presidential suites, Royal Suites or the two storied Royal Duplex Apartments - all available to couples who have cause to celebrate. NIQUESA HOTELS & RESIDENCES

Niquesa Hotels & Residences has carefully built up a collection of six historic, restored palazzi in some of Italy's most culturally important cities including Rome, Florence, Siena and Vicenza.

In 2014 the Royal Demeure hotel group re-branded to become Niquesa Hotels & Residences. The rebrand allowed the property elements harmonise with other aspects of the wider business including jewellery.

The group is privately owned by Italian Professor Luigi de Simone Niquesa, who started his career at the Hotel d'Inghilterra Rome and quickly rose through the ranks to General Manager. In 1987 the Professor recognised a huge opportunity with some of the noble homes of architectural importance in Italy. His entrepreneurial skills and ambition combined with an education in economics led him to begin the creation of an exclusive hotel collection, featuring properties situated at the heart of leading Italian cities renowned for their cultural heritage.

The brand's love of the good life is perfectly embodied in the collection's six deluxe boutique hotels. Each has its own inimitable character, and each exemplifies our Italian heritage through its elegant style and the way in which it warmly welcomes and personally serves its cherished guests.

These hotels have attained a balance between honour for their vestiges of ancient Italy and their celebration of modernity. They are temples of hospitality, representatives of Niquesa's artisan soul.

Niquesa's service philosophy comes from their worldly knowledge and personal experiences as a guest.
